Rep. Andy Coulouris, from the 95th District, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty and most merciful God, You command us to offer food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted: Grant that Your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart; that we may give of ourselves in the service of others until poverty and hunger cease in all the world.

Let us pray for schools and centers of learning throughout the world, for those who lack access to basic education, and for the light of knowledge to blossom and shine in the lives of all God’s people.

Let us pray for an end to the waste and desecration of God’s creation, for access to the fruits of creation to be shared equally among all people, and for communities and nations to find sustenance in the fruits of the earth and the water God has given us.

Let us pray for an end to the divisions and inequalities that scar God’s creation, particularly the barriers to freedom faced by God’s children throughout the world because of gender; that all who have been formed in God’s image might have equality in pursuit of the blessings of creation.

O God, in whom there is neither male nor female, Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free: Unite the wills of all people, that the walls which divide us and limit equality among Your children may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; so that all may live together in justice, harmony, and peace.

God of love, in Your mercy, Hear our prayer.”

Rep. Booher moved that Rep. Steil be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Tobocman moved that Rep. Scott be excused from today’s session.

House Resolution No. 339.

A resolution congratulating North Central Michigan College on its 50th anniversary.

Whereas, It is with great pleasure that this legislative body joins the entire state of Michigan in congratulating North Central Michigan College on its 50th year anniversary celebration. North Central Michigan College has served the citizens of northern Michigan for half a century by providing access to the latest information and technological resources, professional and knowledgeable faculty and staff, and, above all, quality and affordable educational opportunities for thousands of individuals; and

Whereas, Through the strong leadership of C. S. Buckmaster, Dean Burns, General E. H. Burt, Ed Cadwell, John Clark, Ray Conley, Allen Crosby, Cliff Fairbairn, Edward Fenlon, K. C. Festerling, Enoch Giles, A. J. Hegener, M.D., C. Lester Johnson, E. C. Matthews, George McRae, Mrs. Stanley McRae, F. A. Rousche, Leo Russell, A. D. Shankland, H. C. Spitler, Ward Walstrom, and Katherine Warner, North Central Michigan College was established in 1958 through a special election; and

Whereas, North Central Michigan College has since grown into an independent, multi-campus and comprehensive community college providing superior instruction. Today, North Central Michigan College serves over 2,900 individuals each year interested in improving their lives through knowledge, effort, and excellence in learning; and

Whereas, North Central Michigan College has established itself as a competitive educational institution with an exciting and promising future ahead; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body congratulate North Central Michigan College on its 50th anniversary.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Angerer moved that Rule 71 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Donigan, Tobocman, Brown, Young, Leland, Alma Smith, Byrnes, Vagnozzi, Hopgood, Polidori, Gaffney, Meisner, Johnson, Melton, Miller, Constan, Condino, Bauer, Cushingberry, Mayes, Bieda, Clack, Clemente, Dean, Gillard, Hammon, Robert Jones, Lahti, Kathleen Law, Lemmons, McDowell, Meadows, Pearce, Sak, Sheltroun and Valentine offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 340.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to increase the funding emphasis on bus-oriented transit in the 2009 reauthorization of the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient, Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users (SAFETEA-LU).

Whereas, Federal support for bus transit programs, including bus rapid transit, is important as a means to wean ourselves from dependence on foreign oil, reduce congestion, and improve mobility of the elderly and disabled. A recent federal study concluded that $20.6 billion per year is needed for real improvements to the transit system in the United States; and

Whereas, The current 2005 SAFETEA-LU authorization guarantees $234 billion over 6 years (Fiscal Years 04-09) for highway and safety projects and $52.6 billion for transit projects. Only 20% of SAFETEA-LU funding, less than $10 billion per year, goes to transit projects; and

Whereas, Bus transit has been severely neglected and under funded. The emphasis in the SAFETEA-LU transit funding has been on rail transportation projects. 40% of the transit formula funding has been for rail modernization, 40% for the New Starts program, and only 20% for buses and bus facilities. The New Starts program has funded mostly fixed guideway light rail and high-speed rail projects. The funding formula should be changed so bus transit programs and projects are not disadvantaged; and

Whereas, Michigan is known as a donor state for federal transportation dollars since a greater share of our taxes go to Washington than are returned in transportation funding. Michigan's tax rate of return averages about 92%. Michigan's rate of return on tax dollars is only between about 50 and 60% for federal transit dollars. Michigan bus transit programs have been shortchanged in comparison to other states; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to increase the funding emphasis on bus-oriented transit in the 2009 reauthorization of SAFETEA-LU; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Transportation.

Reps. Miller, Clack, Condino, Constan, Dean, Gillard, Hammon, Johnson, Robert Jones, Kathleen Law, Lemmons, McDowell, Meadows, Polidori, Alma Smith, Tobocman, Vagnozzi and Cushingberry offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 341.

A resolution to urge President George W. Bush not to attend the opening ceremonies at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing.

Whereas, The President of the United States, as the leader of the most powerful democracy, stands as the leader of Western democracies. This was true in World War II and during the Cold War, and remains true today. What the President of the United States does and says has influence around the globe. Attending the opening ceremonies of the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing in light of Chinese internal repression and support for outlaw regimes abroad would give undeserved approval to the People's Republic of China; and

Whereas, The People's Republic of China has made their hosting of the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China, a celebration of China's rise to great power status after a generation of economic progress under a liberalized economy. Yet this dramatic economic progress that has enriched the well-being of many Chinese takes place under the one-party rule that China has experienced for nearly 60 years; and

Whereas, Once we had hope that economic progress in China would support political liberalization in Beijing and promote liberty and democracy in the world's most populous nation. The massacre at Tiananmen Square in 1989 of democracy demonstrators by the Chinese security forces demonstrated all too clearly that the Chinese Communist Party would not accept democracy as a price of economic progress. China continues to violate human rights within its borders, with ethnic minorities and people of faith denied the right to simply state they are unhappy with their lives and rights under the Chinese government; and

Whereas, China's record of dubious behavior extends to its international relations as well. China's support for rogue states that oppress their people is too extensive to be sheer coincidence. China's choice of friends reflects China's opposition to democracy and freedom. Chinese support for the Sudanese government's campaign in Darfur of ethnic cleansing, if not actual genocide, is but the most appalling decision by the Chinese government. The rulers in Beijing have also been key supporters propping up the governments of countries with extensive human rights violations, such as Burma, North Korea, and Zimbabwe; and

The approval of the world will allow the Chinese government to continue policies that violate standards of human rights at home and abroad. No leader of the Western world should appear to validate that kind of celebration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge President George W. Bush not to attend the opening ceremonies at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States of America.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.
